Officer Holtzclaw patrolled a challenging, lower income neighborhood in Oklahoma City. An off-duty stop of a swerving car changed his life forever when the driver accused him of sexual assault.

No evidence supported the allegations, yet detectives sought out more accusers by selectively contacting only African American women with criminal histories whom Daniel had stopped during his police duties. Many took the opportunity given them to accuse the young officer.

No solid evidence of crime was found.

Not a single witness saw the alleged assaults.

Patrol car GPS failed to match crucial allegations.

Touch DNA secondary transfer explained the skin cell DNA evidence, which included unknown male DNA the prosecution hid from jurors!

YET DANIEL WAS SENTENCED TO 263 YEARS IN PRISON.

DANIEL HOLTZCLAW IS INNOCENT
